A Report on Teacher's Day Celebration

On the glorious morning of 5th September 2021, all the staff members of N. C. Jindal Public School, Punjabi Bagh, New Delhi celebrated Teacher's day on a virtual platform , paying homage to Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan on his Birth Anniversary in all reverence and pride. The celebration witnessed the presence of the school Principal, Dr D.K. Pandey, the school consultant, Mrs. MadhuKhilbat, the Vice Principal, Mrs. Bharti Pushkarna and the Headmistress, Mrs. Indu Jain.

After the virtual lighting of the lamp, the celebrations commenced with a beautiful presentation by the Jindalites wherein they showcased their abiding love for their teachers through captivating art work and poetic rendition. To honour the contributions of Dr. Radha Krishnan to the Indian society, not only as the President of the nation, but also as an educator , Mrs. MalvikaTanwar drew his life-like portrait and this artistic endeavour was supported with inspirational narrative by Mrs. Sangeeta Tyagi. An encouraging speech "Main Shikshak Hu" rendered by Mrs. Aanchal Khurana touched the deeper realms of passion for teaching and the selfless sacrifices made by a teacher to steer young children onto the righteous path. Some alluring melodies played by Mr. Rockinder and Mr. Gaurav took the celebrations to a new level. Further, Mrs. Kriti Sharma recited a wonderful self composed poem wherein she dealt with the challenges faced by the teachers to sustain the continuum of learning during the Covid 19 pandemic.

Mrs. Indu Jain took the platform to wish everyone on this momentous occasion and motivated everyone to continue their hard work in such testing times. Mrs. Bharti Pushkarna kindled the spirit of zeal and passion among the teachers to reshape the educational landscape by undertaking the new journey that would begin with NEP 2020. The stimulating words of Mrs. Madhu Khilbat filled among the teachers positive energy and enthusiasm.

In his message, the Principal, Dr. D. K. Pandey expressed his deep appreciation to the teaching fraternity for their relentless efforts and persuaded them to update themselves continually. He said that in the present times it is crucial for teachers to create connectivity of global outlook in their teachings. He reminded everyone that teaching is no longer a classroom activity but an act of nurturing global citizens, which requires teachers to seek opportunity to learn new things everyday. He urged the teachers to adopt qualitative approach to learning and assessment and keep the vision of NEP 2020 alive. He felt that it is time to reflect and reaffirm our commitment to the sacred duty of 'service to humanity'. His words of wisdom inspired everyone to give their best and to help the school reach its new heights.
