

Constitution Day Celebration

Constitution Day, also known as "National Law Day" is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950.

The students of N.C. Jindal Public School actively participated in the Constitutional Day celebrations. The students took part in preamble reading activity and quiz on constitution conducted by the Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs. In the online classes, educational video on the constituent assembly and the role of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar as the chairman of the drafting committee was shown to the students from Classes VI-X. During online classes, an interactive session was conducted highlighting the importance and features of Indian Constitution and the role of various national leaders in framing it.

The students actively participated in various activities conducted under the ambit of Constitution Day Celebrations and were sensitized about its utmost importance in our Democratic setup.
